

Message from Director-General

Office of Contemporary Art and Culture

The Art is the valuable creation from an intelligence and study through many experiences and is able to upgrade the human's spirituality towards the dynamic of inspiration and freedom of thought in creation which can reflect to the mankind's value. It can also communicate the artist's concept and meaning of art through several kinds of forms and techniques to the public.

Office of Contemporary Art and Culture realized to encourage and develop all kinds of art and culture by the reason of inducing the new generations to give an importance to conserve and integrate the art and cultural intelligence from the past to nowadays. As a result, all creations will be the cultural cost of Thai society and can conserve the precious artworks of all honored artists who have the furtherance of good deeds to the society for the next generation.

On this occasion, I would like to congratulate and give sincere appreciation for all establishments and great success of this project named "The Century of Fua Haripitak" to celebrate and be memorial to his virtues in the cycle of 100 years under the collaboration of the committee and teamwork.

Prisna Pongtadsirikul

Director-General, Office of Contemporary Art and Culture